

A KENTUCKY HISTORY MOMENT

METCALFE COUNTY: HOWARD HONORED AS HUMANITARIAN

Dr. C.C. Howard was a respected physician and civic leader. The Metcalfe County native opened an infirmary in Glasgow in 1914 and was instrumental in building the city's first community hospital in 1929. Howard encouraged the passage of an act to open regional TB hospitals in Kentucky, set up a scholarship for rural medicine and worked to get clean water for the city. He received the Governor's Medallion for outstanding leadership in the field of rural medicine.
